

School Aims

We develop:

- A wide range of skills to enhance our children's independent learning, their ability to solve problems and to achieve their potential.
- Our children for their future physical, mental and emotional well-being and encourage them to lead a healthy lifestyle.

We encourage:

- Children to have a happy and positive experience of learning.
- Everybody to take pride in the school and respects one another

We want:

- Staff and parents to work in partnership for the benefit of the children.
- The school is an integral part of the local community and we prepare all children to have an active and positive role in the wider world.
